2017 Policies & Regulations

A condition of enrolment is that parents/guardians read this booklet in its entirety and complete an enrolment form immediately.

It is expected that students are punctual to classes.

Please advise the Principal (via email, txt or phone) if your child is going to be absent due to illness, injury, holidays, school camp etc.

It is etiquette for students to inform the Principal of their participation in any productions or performances outside of the Bennett School of Ballet & Jazz. Students must not perform choreography taught at the school without seeking prior permission from the Principal and the appropriate teacher.

No gum, jewellery (except for stud or sleeper earrings, medic alert bracelets), watches or mobile phones are permitted in class. Jewellery and watches can cause injuries and abrasions. All valuables should be left at home or brought into class and given to the teacher for safe keeping.

Whilst every care is taken, no responsibility for students can be taken outside of scheduled classes or the immediate premises. We would prefer students wait inside the building to be collected after class rather than unsupervised outside. Parents and students are asked to take particular care and be respectful of our facilities. Bins are provided for rubbish, please make sure you use them.

General Notes

- Please try and keep noise to a minimum in the dressing room and outside the studios when there are classes running.
- DO NOT climb on the benches in the Dressing Room.
- Please do not play with props in the dressing room as these are for shows and if they are broken will be unable to be used.
- Please do not park in the teachers' driveway car park as teacher may need to get out in an emergency or not be on time to teach class if they have to find a park elsewhere or get cars moved from the driveway.
- In the case of an emergency follow the teacher's instructions.
- First Aid is located in Studio 1. Please see your teacher or the teacher in that studio for first aid.
- There is always someone at the studios who has a current first aid certificate and you will be notified immediately if your child is hurt or sick.
- Please notify a teacher if the toilet is blocked. Spare toilet paper is located in the dressing room behind the door.
- Gas Heater in the Dressing Room, please note the instructions on the top of the heater if you need to turn it on or off. Please do not turn the gas on fully as it only requires a ¼ turn when turning on. When turning off please turn the gas bottle off as well. DO NOT hang children's wet clothing to dry on the guard as this is a potential fire hazard.
- The Dressing Room is used by many children and adults each week. Please make sure that you leave the Dressing Room tidy when you go as otherwise it creates a lot of extra work for the Principal or the cleaner.
- If your children use any of the toys provided in the Dressing Room, please make sure they're put away neatly when they've finished with them. We all like a tidy floor.
- If you make use of the tea and coffee provided for parents/caregivers in the Dressing Room, then please throw away your used cups afterwards. (If they still have liquid in them, then please tip out the liquid first on the grass outside.) The milk is kept in the fridge in the office if it is not already in the dressing room. Your co-operation with keeping the Dressing Room tidy is much appreciated.
- The lost property is located in the Dressing Room.
- No cell phones are to be used during class time, unless for an emergency. Please discuss with your teacher before use.
- Never speak negatively about teachers, students or parents, especially in front of students
- All students must show respect for their teachers at all times. Inappropriate behavior by students and parents could result in dismissal from the school.

Naming Clothing

Please make sure you name all dance clothing so that when things such as crossovers are taken off in class and bits and pieces are left in the Dressing Room they can easily be returned to their owner. If there are 20 crossovers that are all the same it's very difficult to know which one is yours without names on them.

Email Notices

If you are on the email notice list you may need to check your spam filter and add BSBJ as a friend to receive emails from the dance school. Please check your emails for notices regularly. It is your responsibility to check and read these notices so you are aware of what's happening at the dance school. All notices will also be put on the notice board outside Studio 1 and on the Dressing Room door to look at, your child's teacher will also have copies of the notices.

Notices on the Website

The latest notice is always posted on the dance school website (on first page under “latest news”), so please check there if you need information about an upcoming event or date.

Facebook

The dance school has a Facebook page which you can “Like”. The Bennett School of Ballet and Jazz Facebook page has current information and we often put up articles and videos of interest to students.

Snow Days

During Term 2 and 3 there is always the chance of a snow day. We make the decision about closing the dance school due to snow/ice at about 1pm on the day in question. Any such decision will depend on the road conditions and whether or not staff and students can safely get to and from the dance school (remembering that some classes take place in the evening). Any closure of the dance school due to winter conditions will be announced on the cancellations on 97.4 More FM and a notice will also be put on the Bennett School of Ballet & Jazz Facebook page.

Student Class Placements

Careful placement of students in classes at an appropriate level is taken very seriously. It is extremely important to the proper development and safety of the student. The final placement of students is at the discretion of the Principal.

Examinations

Examinations are offered for students in Pre Primary and above in classical ballet and Pre Junior and above in jazz. Examinations are not compulsory but are encouraged as they offer the student a goal to work towards. Students from Grade 2 in ballet and Grade 5/6 in jazz must take a minimum of 2 classes per week if they want to be considered for examinations. Ballet students will be required to attend further classes the higher up the levels they go. Students will be entered for examinations at the discretion of the Principal.

Grooming

Students must be dressed in the correct uniform at all times. Beginners are requested to obtain school dancewear as soon as possible.

Grooming is an essential part of a student’s training. It encourages good deportment, enables students to be able to turn correctly without hair flicking in the eyes and is essential for teachers to be able to observe the correct placement of the head and shoulders. To this end it is expected that:

- All female classical students wear a bun. If students in Tiny Tots, Pre Primary, Primary are unable to maintain a bun, hair must still be off the face (eg. using an appropriate headband).
- All male students maintain a hairstyle that does not fall into the eyes.
- All female jazz students are to wear a ponytail or bun without any loose fringes or tendrils hanging in across the face.

Open Days

Parents, family and friends are invited to watch classes generally once per term (except Term 4). Dates will be set by the Principal and will be advised in a notice. Usually this is the final week of term.

Term Reports

Term reports are written by your child’s teacher and handed out during the last week of Term 1 and Term 3.

Re-Enrolment

You do not need to re-enroll your child each term, although it is appreciated if you let the Principal know if he/she is not returning for the next term, as we do have wait lists for some classes and this ensures these new students can start at the beginning of term and not several weeks later. At the end of the year you will be asked to re-enroll for the following year so you can guarantee a place for your child in your preferred class and time.

Parent Viewing Policy

Dance classes are “closed” which means that parents, other family members, friends, etc. are not to watch classes. If a student has someone special from out of town visiting who would really like to watch, then please contact the Principal and then she can pass the information onto the child’s teacher. The students work better, are more focused and there are fewer interruptions when there aren’t people watching which is why the dance school has this rule in place. However, we appreciate that parents and other family members are interested in what their children are learning and how they’re progressing with their dancing, so there’s always a watching week each term. It is understandable that when younger students are settling into classes having a parent close by can be an important part of instilling confidence in your child, therefore we allow a parent into class for the first 2 lessons to help settle your child. Once your child is settled we ask that you abide by our viewing policy.

Medical Information

Parents must note on the enrolment form medical conditions their child has, learning disabilities or any other relevant information so our teachers can be fully informed. All information about our students is confidential.

Attending Other Dance Schools for the Same Dance Genre (written by Ballet Foundation)

As a student it is not appropriate to attend more than one ballet school for training at a time. While under the instruction of one school your loyalty for training, rehearsals, performances and so forth belongs to them. If you want to do more, ask what additional classes you can take, what private lessons might help and what work you can do on your own each week to improve. Your school is investing in you – don’t pollute what they are building in you.

For training purposes it is essential that students build a firm technical foundation with one school of thought. Hearing differing types of instruction can be very confusing for your body as you develop that base. You are training to have the muscle memory to do things technically correct. The exercises built into your classes are methodically getting you to that place by repetition and consistency. A professional dancer has no problem working with different directors and coaches because the foundation is firm and they can always go back to what they know works. Trust your instructor. They have a plan and just a few classes with someone else can actually counteract their plan for your training. Please note that the Bennett School follows this practice.

Junior Teachers

Becoming a teacher of dance takes many years of training. Not only have our new/junior teachers themselves learnt dance for at least 10 years and to a high level, they have also spent time observing and helping in as many classes as possible to gain knowledge of teaching - but this is still not the same as teaching the class themselves. I value the interest my senior students and new teachers take in teaching and passing on their knowledge and enjoyment to younger students and I foster this interest in them. At some time they must take the leap and teach a class or two themselves which can be a very challenging experience for them, so I appreciate all the support you as parents are able to give the new/junior dance school teachers as they embark on their teaching pathway. We regularly have ongoing training during term time and I oversee these classes and give further training as I see necessary so your children always receive high quality teaching. If I wasn’t given the chance to teach by my teacher I would have never been able to pursue my interest and have a fulfilling career as a teacher. The dance school is also very lucky to have some very keen and talented senior students who come along to help in the Tiny Tots class and share their joy of dance with the junior students. The dance school strongly supports this learning environment for all.

Annual Performance

Each year the dance school puts on a story performance which incorporates all students at the dance school. Extra rehearsals and the dress rehearsal are held in the week leading up to the end of year show. Parents and students will be notified of additional rehearsals and details in Term 3 and Term 4.

The end of year show offers our students a professionally directed performance that allows students to present to their families and friends the results of a year's hard work, dedication and progress. Students in the Tiny Tots classes are required to perform in 2 of the shows and all others are to perform in all 3 shows.

A big part of dance training includes learning through performance. Although performance opportunities can help prepare some students for a possible career in dance, they also contribute to children's success in non-dance activities. The experience helps build self-esteem and confidence, which can result in better in-school presentations, improved social skills and strong university and job interview skills. The rehearsal process is a tremendous learning experience as well. It helps the children develop retention skills and by working with their classmates on a group performance, they learn the positive aspects of working as a team to create the best end results. They are also learning from others and by watching senior students, the ability to sit quietly, have patience and respect for others.

Production Fee

All families are charged a Production Fee (subject to change) of $30 for the 1st child and $25 for each additional child (2016 fees) to cover the overheads of putting on the end of year show. This fee needs to be paid in order for your child to perform in the concert. Students will not be able to participate in the concert unless their Production Fee has been paid. The Production Fee helps cover the extensive preparation, sewing, purchasing and laundering of costumes, accessories and props. This is charged at the start of Term 3 and is non-refundable.

Pointe Work

At the Bennett School of Ballet & Jazz we tend to put girls on pointe slightly older around 13-14 years old. This does not hinder their progress in anyway nor does it make them behind other students who have started earlier as they are stronger and progress quite quickly once they start and have more understanding and awareness of the process than a younger student may have. I personally do not believe in putting students on pointe unless I feel they are strong enough, have good technique developing and have an understanding of how to take correction and knowledge of their bodies. They also have to show a certain amount of commitment so they will take this seriously as it is not something to just have a play around with. The students also must be attending a minimum of 3 ballet lessons per week to be fully prepared and have the continued strength and technique required for this part of the art. We also do 6 months to a year build-up of exercises for the feet and ankles and we also request that you take students to a podiatrist before beginning pointe work for an assessment so I can be aware of any weaknesses or structural issues that we may not have picked up on. This means that we can avoid potential future injuries by implementing extra exercises where required. We have also found that students who have 1 or more sprained ankles before starting pointe do for some time have a weakness in that ankle and can struggle with pointe on that foot. Please watch out for netball for ankles and skiing for knees as these can produce long term ankle and knee injuries which will inhibit their dance progress.

Helpful Ideas for your Tiny Tot

Separation from the Parent

The process of separation from the parent as the child attends dance class is an importance accomplishment of preschool children.

As children mature, they begin to identify themselves as independent personalities. In separating from you, the parent, your child is learning:

- to develop an interest in the activities of the dance class
- to feel comfortable with other children in the class
- to understand that his/her parent will come back and pick him/her up
- to understand that all parents leave their children and come back for them

It is important to know that at times your children will explore the limits of attending dance class and say they don't want to go. This period may occur anytime, but it is usually short-lived. We also find that this can happen in the colder months. Here are some suggestion to help:

- Emphasise what the child is doing at class rather than what you do while he/she is in class.
- Before you leave, see that the child is involved in an activity or is in the hands of a teacher.
- Avoid prolonged goodbyes.
- We expect crying to start with (and usually tears are for the parent's benefit) and in most cases usually stop once the child is engaged in the class

It Just May Not Be the Right Time

If your child cries or does not want to take class, don't panic. If we push children and create more stress than they are already experiencing, they may come to perceive dance class as a bad experience. That kind of negativity could make them apprehensive about dance for a long time, which isn't good for anyone involved. Or sometimes children enjoy coming but once in the room prefer to sit and watch and not participate. If this is happening your child's teacher will talk to you about the situation and we suggest that they practise at home and come back in 6 months to a year and then we find that they are much more willing to participate and enjoy class. Your child's dreams and expectations of what dance class is compared to the reality can be different, and this can also cause some confusion for your child.

We thank you for your ongoing support of all the teachers and the dance school and hope your child enjoys many years of dancing at the Bennett School of Ballet & Jazz

Discipline Policy

In order to maintain a happy, health, professional environment, students are taught the importance of being part of the group. We encourage students to have respect for other students, the teachers and staff, and studio property, and we foster the development of good habits and compliance with the rules of conduct.

Our staff are trained to use constructive techniques of discipline to maintain class control and handle individual misbehaviour.

- Children who exhibit unacceptable behaviour or attitudes are told what was not appropriate and directed to a positive alternative approach or behaviour.
- If a child strikes another child the two are separated and each is asked to explain what happened. They are then asked to help solve the problem, talk to each other and reconcile with one another.
- Children who are disruptive will be respectfully asked to stop the behaviour. If the behaviour is repeated, they will be reminded of it and told how it affects others. If the disruptions continues the children will be asked to sit down for a short period of time before rejoining the class.
- If a child's misbehaviour continues to disrupt the class, the parent or guardian will be called and the matter discussed.

Termination of Enrolment

In certain circumstances, when it is in the best interest of one or more students, it may be necessary for the Principal to terminate a student's enrolment. Every effort will be made to correct a problematic situation before terminating.

Reasons for terminations of enrolment include the following:

- Disruptive or dangerous behaviour by students or their parents
- Abuse of other children, staff or property
- Inability of the Bennett School of Ballet & Jazz to meet the child's needs
